

Event Terms and Conditions (these “Event Terms”)

Participants attending an event (the “Event”) organised by Tradelink Electronic Commerce Limited (“Tradelink”) must comply with the following rules stipulated by Tradelink:

1. All requests for participation are subject to availability and Tradelink's discretion.
2. (Where applicable) Only confirmed registered participants shall be admitted to the venue. Participants should present valid admission badge/confirmation letter/confirmation email for admission. Tradelink reserves the right to refuse admission of any person who fails to comply with the above arrangement.
3. Participants must dress in proper attire. Participants in improper attire shall not be admitted to the venue.
4. Tradelink and security staff at the venue have the authority to invite any person present to undergo security checking and to show personal belongings and bags. Participants who refuse to undergo security checking without good reason may be denied entry and be removed from the venue.
5. To ensure public safety and order at the venue, participants shall not bring any dangerous items, which may be determined at the sole discretion of Tradelink and the security staff at the venue, into the venue. Tradelink reserves to right to restrict the items that may be taken into the venue.
6. Interference with the smooth running of the Event in any form is strictly prohibited. Persons entering into or inside the venue should not intentionally cause any obstruction to the entrance, exit, staircase, passage, district passageway, emergency exit or emergency passageway of the venue. Chanting of slogans, shouting, distribution or display of materials, or behaviour in any form that may disrupt the Event and/or affect other participants shall be prohibited. Offenders may be removed from the venue immediately.
7. Participants shall also comply with all requirements, procedures, measures or restrictions imposed by the owner of the venue.
8. Tradelink and security staff at the venue may intercept or interdict persons who constitute a threat to event safety and order for any reason, including those apparently under the influence of alcohol or drugs and those in possession of dangerous items or substances. Such persons may be denied from entry or be removed from the venue.
9. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Tradelink reserves the right to refuse admission of any uncooperative participant/person or remove such person from the venue.
10. Interpretation of these Event Terms and any terms or expressions herein is the sole prerogative of Tradelink. Tradelink reserves the right of final decision on these Event Terms and any issues in connection with these Event Terms.

11. Tradelink may, at its sole discretion, amend, revise or otherwise update these Event Terms from time to time without prior notice. Participant's attendance of, or continued participation in, the Event following such changes shall constitute participant' acceptance of the amended/revised/updated Event Terms.
